

'THE STORY OF YOUR SOUL' - A COURSE OF PAST LIFE DISCOVERY AND THERAPY COURSE PROSPECTUS

COURSE DETAILS

This is a unique course that offers you the chance to learn and tell 'The Story of Your Soul', by discovering and charting your Past Lives. Taking the position that we are a Soul within a different body in each lifetime, this Course enables you to discover the purpose of both your previous and current lifetimes, even taking a look at a resulting future lifetime. This Course can then be likened to reading your own Akashic Record, from cover to cover, on which much work is done.

The study of our Past Lives, whilst it is a fascinating subject, has the purpose and intent of allowing you to realise and integrate the meaning and lessons of each life, into the current life and self. This can result in you becoming a more complete individual, fully aware of why you are here at this time and what you need to learn and achieve through your life. Through this Course you can become more whole and in control of your destiny.

There are many aspects of interest and use that Past Life work can bring. Apart from the discovery of the purpose of your life, relationships with loved ones, successful and 'failed', easy and difficult, past and present, can also be revealed. Through Past Life work, we can come to know who it is we have lived with before, in what capacity and why. In this way, you can achieve understanding, progress and fulfilment of relationships with people in your current life.

Content of the Course is in part based on the work and methods of Edgar Cayce, often referred to as 'the worlds' greatest psychic' and who produced much of his teaching while in trance. Other material and exercises are also included.

COURSE PRACTICALITIES

The Course takes place over one year, consisting of one Sunday per month. Handouts of all course material will be issued and students are also required to maintain a Dream Diary as an ongoing journal through the Course. There is no additional 'homework' set through the Course, although students will be encouraged to read and compile notes they make as a result of what they learn during each day.

No prior knowledge or previous experience is required to do this Course. No knowledge or experience will be assumed and the course material covers everything from the beginning. Of course an acceptance of the principle of Past Lives and Reincarnation is necessary, although students will be enquired to research what is discovered about their Past Lives to prove authenticity.

The Course is suitable for those wishing to study and learn about their Past Lives, or who wish to explore this aspect of their spiritual and personal development.
